1. The deportations of supposed enemies of the régime from Budapest ceased on 18 July 1951; no official explanation has been given. On 20 July a similar campaign of deportations started at Győr and Kaposvár.
2. Rumors current in Budapest claim that some of the persons deported from the city have arrived at Lemberg (Lvov) and Odessa in the U.S.S.R. It is alleged that cards and letters have been received in Budapest from these persons in the Soviet Union.
3. No unusual military movements have been observed in Hungary, nor is there any clear evidence that hostilities are contemplated within the next few months.
